

Design of the Banana Tyranny.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE DESTRUCTION OF A RACE.

Our hatred must be inextinguishable. Hatred of the United Fruit Company, as the link of Yankee imperialism and its servants, must form part of our civic-social Honduran culture, because that mortal enemy has offended and abused our country.

This hatred must be inextinguishable, organic, it must form part of our very life, as a consequent reply to the hatred which our oppressors have for us, which hatred has been elevated to the category of a doctrine according to the Rolston epigraph forgetting that: "Those who sow winds will reap storms" and "As you judge others, thus will you be judged".

However, to do this we must rid ourselves of that inferiority complex, which has been systematically impressed upon us by the dominating classes represented by the Historic Parties, who have traditionally educated us in the spirit of submission and humility towards the gringos (americans), propagating the imperialistic fallacy of their racial superiority, which today they call "the American way of life."

We must have confidence in ourselves. We must believe that we constitute a true human value. Therefore, we must countercheck the noxious influence of the barbaric theory of racial discrimination, which traditionally pretends to create the common myth that the gringos (Americans) are superior beings or supermen. Even American prostitutes, who enjoy a pompous life in the United States, at the expense of the sweat and blood of the farmers, have permitted themselves the luxury of scorning us in our land.

It is necessary to destroy the myth of their invincible power, because in Korea that myth has been buried forever, and the heroic Koreans, in defending their martyred country, have taken care of burying under the soil millions of the gringo invaders. And thus, in Asia and in all the other colonies, the gringo imperialists are suffering defeat after defeat, as well as everywhere whenever they are fought with arms in hand.

In all the history of the human race, there has never been another nation which has excited such concentrated, universal hatred as the United States of North America, because today they are a symbol of barbarism.

It is a nation which is dominated by Wall Street, and which defied the entire clamor of humanity by sending sages to the electric chair, as the Rosenbergs, to keep the stock exchange from going down, and which fosters armed conflicts in order to bolster its criminal manufacture of armaments.

It is a nation which offends humanity and science to such an extent, that it covered them with mourning when in a barbarian sacrifice, a MOTHER, read this well, a mother with her thoughts upon her children, with great maternal love and with their names upon her lips, was able to overcome the bestial torment to which she was subjected, by resisting five electric charges to the amazement of her own executioners.

This horrible crime was an affront to thousands of Americans, who have rejected it, to the extent that Emanuel Block, defending attorney for the Rosenbergs, declared on the day of the execution: "On this day I am ashamed of being an American."

It is our duty to destroy the myth that without the gringos we cannot survive. And to prove also that we can live fraternally with other nations in equality of rights and not as slaves of the United States of North America.

The better we know our implacable enemy and its agents, and the more we learn to hate him and to acquire a civic social conscience, we will be more capable of defeating that merciless enemy and its servants.

It is our duty to remind our countrymen, at all times, of the infinite damage which has been done to us through regulated ignorance, the sorrow caused to each Honduran family, the looting of our national resources, the inhuman treatment given to the laborers of the banana empire, where the method recommended by Pemberton and the Jew Lazarus, has been rigidly applied, the transformation of our proud Uluu River into a grave for our murdered countrymen, and that such empire has been founded on the corpses of our countrymen sacrificed by ~~theocracy~~ national tyranny in the holocaust of the United Fruit Company.

It is our duty to warn the people of Honduras not to fall again into the snare prepared by deceitful politicians who want to prolong the same political situation, even though they talk of "conciliation" and use other stupid and intransigent tricks.

Those politicians are the same ones that in our own National Congress have proclaimed loudly that: "It is not possible that the companies that have such large interest in Honduras should not take part in our politics, they cannot avoid that participation." And who have left as an abject monument in the history of Congress their proclamation that "It does not matter if the responsibility reaches into the fifth generation" when it comes to selling out their country to the foreign companies.

But we can only fight that hateful enemy successfully through a powerful movement of national unity, without being deceived by the directors of the traditional parties who, under various guises, do nothing more than to obey faithfully the orders of their imperialistic bosses to carry out their functions as national traitors, and who are under orders to keep us divided and crushed, to prevent national liberation, to keep us enslaved and exploited to the utmost for the benefit of our worst enemies: the Imperialist Yankee Companies.
